

LOMPOC CHALKS FESTIVAL

Dear Chalk Artists,

The Lompoc Theatre Project would like to invite you to our Inaugural event, Lompoc Chalks! This is a fundraiser organized and sponsored by The Lompoc Theatre Project, a non-profit, whose goal is the restoration and re-opening of our beautiful downtown Theatre.

Date- October 12 - 14

October 12:

1:00 pm Squares are available to start drawing.

6:00 pm Meet the artists reception, complementary to artist and one guest.

October 13:

10:00 – 5:00 Festival open.

October 14:

10:00-5:00 Festival open.

Who will be there:

Chalk Artists

Artisan craft vendors

Food Trucks

Beer and Wine Garden

Local entertainment and tours of our Theatre.

Artist Benefits:

- We will be able to provide overnight accommodations for up to 20 out of town artists. First come first served. First consideration will be given to artists who live more than 60 miles away.
- Meals will be provided during the festival days from Food Truck of choice. We will also have an artist's corner with snacks, waters etc.
- Artists who do not have local sponsors may be paired with a sponsor upon request, if sponsors are available.

Lompoc is a thriving artist community. Tagged as The City of Arts of Flowers, the month of October will feature three weekend events to celebrate National Arts and Humanities month and will be marketed as Artober in Lompoc! In addition to the Chalk Festival Lompoc will also be hosting Mural in a Weekend on October 6th and 7th and an Art Hunt on October 20th.

If you are not familiar with our town please visit these websites and see what a weekend here has to offer art lovers of all ages.
